MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Chief, Real Estate and Construction
Division, OL

25X1A

SUBJECT : Summary of Recommendations Contained in [REDACTED] PCS Field Assignment ReportREFERENCE : Memo dtd 23 Dec 69 to C/RECD/OL fr [REDACTED]
Subject: PCS Field Assignment Report - South
Vietnam

25X1A

1. As recently requested by DC/RECD [REDACTED] has extracted for our convenience, and tabulated below, the recommendations which are contained throughout his report. I have added my own observations in parenthesis after each of [REDACTED] recommendations. His recommendations are:

25X1A

a. Amend RECD/SOP 22-1 to include a section for PCS report covering engineering program trends, such a section could assist management in programming future assignments.

This recommendation was given verbally to the Executive Officer, RECD, OL to incorporate into a future change to RECD/SOP 22-1, if considered appropriate. (Concur: However, I do not consider the change essential, since paragraph 4(d) (4) of RECD 22-1 is broad enough now to permit including this type of comment without necessarily revising the instruction - RGW)

*what does this mean?
yes or NO?*

b. Engineers and maintenance superintendents should be familiar with:

*field finance
and logistics course include this doesn't have*

(1) the application of subsubject classification pertaining to engineer programs, (Concur:RGW)

(2) the terms CMR, FPA, and PRA (Concur:RGW)

(3) general financial methods of accumulating and reporting costs.

(a) It is planned to incorporate into the proposed RECD Handbook general information of this nature.

*Concur

(b) We intend to send [REDACTED] to the Field Finance and Logistics Course so he can determine those portions of the course applicable to RECD operations. The intention is to establish either a condensed version of the course or a series of briefings for RECD personnel so they will be conversant with financial and logistics procedures and terminology. (Concur: All new personnel, especially those subject to field duty should attend - RGW)

(c) Maintenance superintendents should be familiar with the maintenance program established at [REDACTED] (Concur: RGW)

It is planned to establish a course of training covering this maintenance program when a worldwide maintenance program has been developed and accepted.

(d) Use the Vietnam Station Engineering Instruction No. 100 of 26 July 1968 (Attachment 1 to Appendix B of the reference) as a guide for future similar area type programs. (Concur: RGW)

2. Certain sections of this instruction will be incorporated into the RECD Handbook. The RECD Handbook will be developed to include guidelines for handling single station and area programs. (EB Job No. 7017-70 assigned to [REDACTED])
